

Daily Bulletin

Friday, April 12, 2019

The people here were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, since they welcomed the message with eagerness and examined the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. ~ Acts. 17:11

Maroon Day ~ Student body president speeches and voting @ 8:30

Lunch: Baked Potato Bar with toppings, Fruit, Salad Bar

Happy Birthday: Heath Hoggarth

- Financial Literacy will meet in Mr. Carlson's room (J205) in Jackson
- The library will be closed for testing in the morning. Study hall students should report to the conference room to vote.
- If you are a junior, and interested in serving on the Cass County Youth Commission please see Mr. Roach.
- Seniors! Please remember to turn in your "Most likely to..." sheets to Mrs. Kroll today!
- If you have participated in three or more sports, stop and complete a Triple-Threat form and turn it in to Mr. Roach.
- Have you registered to visit the best place on the earth, A.K.A. Camp House? Join us July 28-August 1 for five days of laughter, freedom, worship, purpose-driven teaching, and trips to our favorite spots along Lake Superior and Duluth. Registration for Camp House is open on the school website for all students in grades 8-12 now until April 30th.