1. And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.
2. And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.
3. And all went to be taxed, everyone into his own city.

6. And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

8. And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night.
9. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

11. For unto you is born this day, in the City of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.
12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying:
14. "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men!"

15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another; let us now go even until Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
